

REACH A DIVERSE READERSHIP WITH HIGH DISPOSABLE INCOME

Anglican Taonga tells the stories of the Anglican Church in Aotearoa, New Zealand and Polynesia. It is published seasonally and is distributed to all ministry units, churches and the social services of the Anglican Church.

8,500 copies are distributed with the focus on positive news stories. As a result Anglican Taonga has strong reader support with pressure on increasing the print run.

Informal assessments indicate that each issue has more than two readers, indicating regular audience of greater than 20,000 Christians.

Anglican Taonga is also available on line at www.anglicantaonga.org.nz where you will find all of the articles from the printed editions, special online only features, plus the latest Anglican news both here in New Zealand and abroad. You can also submit your own comments, place advertisements and link to Anglican sites around the galaxy.

ANGLICAN TAONGA WEB RATES

The following rates are in NZ Dollars per week and exclude GST

The screenshot shows the Anglican Taonga website interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'Subscribe', 'Advertise', and 'Twitter' links. The main header features the 'anglicantaonga' logo and the tagline 'TELLING THE STORIES OF THE ANGLICAN CHURCH IN AOTEAROA, NZ AND POLYNESIA'. Below this is a search bar and a red banner for 'Ad Postion 1'. The main content area includes several article teasers with images and titles like 'When we are far from God', 'Change expert to lead St John's', 'Three cathedral options unveiled', 'Savouring the Salt and Light', 'Easter: Jesus was raised to life', 'Bishop Peter Sutton dies in Nelson', 'Maori Bible is given new life', 'Good Friday focuses on orphans', and 'Good Friday focuses on orphans'. A 'Worth a look' section features a list of articles with a 'Flash' placeholder. A 'Latest blogs' section shows several blog entries with author photos and names like Imogen de la Bere, Kelvin Wright, Lynda Patterson, and Brian Thomas. At the bottom, there's a footer with copyright information and a 'QUICORP' logo.
